BERKELEY LAB DONOR INSTRUCTIONS

Gifts to The Regents are accompanied by a letter or deed of gift from the donor that specifies the use to which the gift.

Ideally, a gift letter should include the following information:

- Clearly state the donor's intention to make a gift;
- Include a brief description of the gift (e.g., cash, shares of stock);
- Declare that the gift is irrevocable (under California law, a gift is considered revocable unless the donor specifies that it is irrevocable);
- Identify the Laboratory as the entity for which the gift is intended;
- Include a specific designation of the purpose or purposes for which the gift is to be used (if applicable).

Following are texts for several sample letters that have been approved by UC General Counsel.

Unrestricted Gift

"I/We enclose my/our check for $_____ payable to The Regents of the University of California. This is an irrevocable gift and shall be used at the Berkeley Lab to further the goals of the University as The Regents in their discretion deem appropriate."

Restricted Purpose Gift

"I/We enclose my/our check for $_____ payable to The Regents of the University of California. This is an irrevocable gift, and shall be used for _____ (specific purpose) at the Berkeley Lab."

(For example: ". . . shall be used for research in cancer under the direction of _____.")

Sending the Donor Letter to Berkeley Lab:

Letters are addressed to Laboratory Director and sent to the Sponsored Projects Office:
